GitHub Actions

1. First create new repository on github or use exiting repository. I created new instalation for laravel app, and push to github.
   Then we are going to create new github workflow open you repository and navigate to actions and chooes you workflow based on application type